

I want to have Video Relay Service as a demand. I find it a very helpful for communicating with American Sign Language users. The English grammar and structures are very challenging for American Sign Language users when they could not explain clearly.

Also, Video Relay Service is cutting down a time-consuming to take a turn for a conversation like "GA" or "SK".

Please make this Video Relay Service as a demand in communication for the deaf community.

Thanks.